

Hi everyone. I'm your new ALT for Eikaiwa class this semester. Today I want to talk to you about my favorite grocery store in Kurobe. Do you know what grocery store is in Japanese? Grocery store is "スーパー" in Japanese. My favorite grocery store in Kurobe is Max Value. Do you know it? It's my favorite grocery store, because you can get coupons there on Tuesdays and many things are cheaper than other grocery stores. They also have a deli area. A deli is a place where they sell many cooked foods that you can eat right away. I often buy food from their deli. My favorite food to buy there is fried squid, fried shrimp, fried quail eggs, and potato croquette. They are very delicious and also cheap. I like to cook, but sometimes I'm lazy so I'm happy that Max Value has a deli.

Now I will ask you three questions about what I just talked about. Please write your answers and bring it to class when school starts. I'm very excited to meet all of you.

Word List:

* right away – すぐに

* fried quail eggs – うずらの卵の天ぷら

* lazy – なまけもの
